Defendant.

(Motion to Extend Time—#332)

The basis for Defendant Bickle’s Motion to Extend is that he has retained counsel to review the record and give him advice. There is no explanation of why the advice of counsel was not sought before bringing the motion in the first instance, no information about when counsel was retained or how long counsel would need to review the record and give the anticipated advice.

1 Furthermore, there is no affirmative indication that the anticipated advice would, in fact, be
2 encouraging to Bickle, or how much time is being requested or suggested for the schedule to be
3 extended.

4 Accordingly, in an effort to give Defendant Bickle the benefit of the doubt, and
5 although the United States has already provided its Opposition, for good cause appearing,

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion for Extension of Time for Govern-
7 ment to File Response to 2255 Motion (#332) is denied in part and granted in part as follows:

- 8 (1) That part of the Motion seeking an extension for the Government's Response in Opposition 9 is denied as moot.
- 10 (2) That part of the Motion seeking an extension of time for Defendant Bickle to file his reply is 11 granted and the time to file his Reply is extended to October 8, 2015.

12 Dated: August 24, 2015.
